Elegant, subtle, exquisite blend of pinot and merlot with intense aroma of wild berries, cherries, pepper with a hint of vanilla, toast and cocoa. Biodynamic, fermented spontaneously using low-intervention, with wild yeasts, aging in old wood barrels, unfiltered, suitable for Vegans.

 ECO

Pinot Noir Paul Humbrecht 330

2014/18, Alsace AOC, France

Grape variety: pinot noir

Great pinot noir from Alsace. Notes of fresh red fruits, raspberries, redcurrants with hints of spices. Pleasant to taste, this wine has a round and fruity attack before revealing its fine and silky tannins

Woodcutters Shiraz Torbreck 330

2020/21, Barossa Valley, Australia

Grape variety: shiraz

Rich, energetic and complex Shiraz offers up notes of crushed black plums, blueberries and black cherries with hints of tar, spice box, cocoa, dark chocolate and licorice. Unashamedly full-bodied, soft and well-balanced, it has a great concentration of ripe black fruit and baking spice flavors, finishing with good persistence. A stunning wine.

 VEGAN

Saint Joseph Clos de Cuminalle Pierre Gaillard 370

2018/19, Saint Joseph AOC, France

Grape variety: syrah

Medium bodied, rich and concentrated with lots of pure, fleshy and juicy fruit, with some leather and meat as well as a touch of violet, basil and smoky mineral lift. Fabulous Rhône syrah from a small vineyard, that is aromatic and absolutely delicious.

1ER CRU

Santenay 1er Cru Beauregard Justin Girardin 370

2017/19, Santenay AOC, Burgundy, France

Grape variety: pinot noir

Excellent Burgundy with lovely restrained pinot noir smokiness on the nose. The palate is structured and dark-fruited on the attack, before melding and mellowing, allowing the succulent red berry juiciness to emerge. Very ripe, smooth, aromatic and succulent, quite concentrated, mineral and peppery too, delicious fruit with a southerly warmth.

Red wines

Marimar Estate Cristina Pinot Noir 1030

2015/17, Russian River Valley AVA, California, USA
Grape variety: pinot noir

Displays vibrant, luscious fruit reminiscent of blackberries and dark cherries, aromas of clove and orange peel. This is a wine of precision, finesse and balance, rich and opulent on the palate, seductive, with great balance between oak, fruit and acidity, refined tannins and solid structure. Cristina is a special barrel selection from a unique blend of Pinot Noir clones of the Don Miguel Vineyard.

Papillon Orin Swift 1190

2018/19, Napa Valley, USA
Grape varieties: cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc, petit verdot, malbec, merlot

Full-bodied, big, opulent style, with layers of flavors. Powerful aromatics escape the glass with rich notes of ripe blackcurrant, blackberry, mulberries, plum preserves, fresh brioche and chocolate box with wafts of underbrush, dried herbs and Indian spices supported by a frame of sweet oak. Intensely layered and decadent on entry, with a silky soft yet weighty texture. Bold and massive yet also delicate and complex.

1ER GRAND CRU CLASSÉ B

Château Beau-Séjour Bécot 1700

2016/18, Saint-Emilion GC AOC, Bordeaux, France
Grape varieties: merlot 80%, cabernet sauvignon 5%, cabernet franc 15%

Elegant and full-bodied Saint Emilion. Aromas of blackcurrant, black cherries, braised fig, dark cocoa, earth, graphite, with a hint of toasty oak and vanillin in the background. Powerful but refined tannins, balanced acidity and impressive finish.

GRAND CRU

Clos des Cortons Faiveley Domaine Faiveley 2100

2011/13, Corton AOC, Burgundy, France
Grape variety: pinot noir

Faiveley's grand cru monopole has some of the vines dating back to 1936. The beauty of the wine is immediately there-in the aroma, in the surety and purity of the fragrance, the taste of fresh cherries, the scent of a floral border in spring. It's spicy, bold, firmly structured, intellectually pleasing in the intricacies of its structure, seductively supple now.

99 ROBERT PARKER

Runrig Torbreck 2500

2009/17/18, Barossa Valley, Australia
Grape variety: shiraz

This is larger than life, super concentrated, black-fruited, dark and essency shiraz. A study in depth and opulence. Redolent of violets and blueberries it is spicy with an undercurrent of anise and Indian spices muddled with mulberries. Make no mistake this is big end of town, take no prisoners old vine shiraz pushed to the limit. Biodynamic.

100 JAMES SUCKLING

Château Palmer 3Ème Cru Classé 6100

2015, Margaux AOC, Bordeaux, France
Grape varieties: merlot 44%, cabernet sauvignon 50%, petit verdot

2015 Château Palmer is one of the greatest efforts of this superlative vintage. A beautiful wine, rare mix of richness and power. Big and glamorous. Aromas of cassis, blueberries and blackberries, with hints of violets. Full-bodied, phenomenally concentrated, viscous, opulent wine with plenty of sweet tannins. Solid and extremely pretty. Sensational and one of the all-time great Palmers (along with the 1961, 1966, 1970, 1989, 2000 and 2005).

99 ROBERT PARKER

Opus One 8200

2018/19, Oakville AVA, Napa Valley, USA
Grape varieties: cabernet sauvignon 78-84%, merlot, petit verdot, cabernet franc, malbec

Elegant, rich, hedonistic, full-bodied Opus One, the palate is jam-packed with juicy black, blue and red fruits, notes of black forest cake, morello cherries, mulberries, cassis, espresso, licorice, lavender, lilac, cinnamon, roses, Sichuan pepper, iron ore. Silky, pure, graceful and brilliant wine with an impression of total finesse, lasts for minutes. Magnificent.
